

2010 Parade Restrictions

1. Entries must have entertainment value, as no entries will be admitted for advertising purposes only.
2. No political issue campaigning allowed.
3. The parade committee prior to August 2, 2010 must approve all literature and/or items for distribution.
4. The Danish Festival parade is for wholesome family entertainment and entries should adhere to this and not be graphic in nature.
5. The Parade Director and/or committee reserves the right to exclude any participant whose intent is not keeping with the value of the festival. This includes the actual day of the event.

If there are any questions with these restrictions, please contact the Danish Festival office at 616-754-6369.

Thank you for your cooperation!