

March 2010

Kare Venner (Dear Friends):

Velkommen to the 46th Annual Danish Festival Grand Dansk Parade!

It is time to begin planning for the 46th Annual Danish Festival Grand Dansk Parade to be held on Saturday, August 21st, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. We are planning many activities and expecting one of the finest parades ever. Your participation will definitely enhance our production.

The Grand Dansk Parade is a judged parade, with awards presented for the following:

- Judges' Favorite
- Best Entry in Theme
- Best Professional Entry
- Best Amateur Entry
- Best Musical Entry

The theme this year is Hans Christian Andersen's "The Princess and the Pea". We are expecting that all applicants will be in support of the Danish or previous mentioned theme.

There are many ways to participate in the parade, both physically and/or financially. You may participate with an amateur float built by individuals, walk as costumed characters or sponsor a professional float. The possibilities are endless and very rewarding.

Parade entries are charged a $35.00 entry fee, political entries are charged a $55.00 entry fee and non-profit organizations are exempt from this fee for the 2010 parade. To assure your place in the parade line up, your entry fee must accompany your application and be received by August 2, 2010. You will be contacted via mail/e-mail in August with additional information concerning line-up, parking and placement order. We look forward to your participation.

Opringtig (Sincerely),

Amy Peterman
